The City Council of Joseph needs your help. The Council is in the process of determining what are the most important issues and challenges facing our City in the next few years. In order to proceed, we need to know what YOU, the citizens and tax payers in Joseph, believe are the most important issues the Council needs to focus on in the next two to five years. Please take a few minutes and list the issues YOU believe the Council needs to focus on when looking to the future. Please list the issues in order of importance to YOU.
